INTELLÓFAX 12

* LASSIFICATION

INFORMATION REPORT

CD NO.

25X1A

CHUNTRY

USSR (Latvia)

25X1C

DATE DISTR

Subject

Radar Installation at Lepaya

NO OF PAGES

7 NOV 49

PLACE

ACQUIRED

DATE OF INF

NO. OF ENCLS.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1

THE DECEMBER CONTAINS HIPOTRATION APPORTING THE HATIONAL DETRICTS OF HIP UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF THE SEPICHACE ACT TO N. C. . 3 AND SE. AS AMERICAD. ITS TRAINSHIPMENT ON THE EMPLATION OF HIS CONTENTS HE ARY BANKER TO AN UNITHORIZED PRIGON IN PRO-VIDING STANDS AND SEPICE OF THE PORT OF TRAINSHIPMENT. THE RESERVE AND THE RESERVE AS A STATE OF TH

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

In June 1949, the Soviets completed construction of the largest radar installation in the East. It is located approximately twelve kilometers south-southwest of Lepays, the Latvian port on the Baltic Sea. This installation will be the main center of control for Baltic waterways and airways as far north as Finland. German scientists are alleged to have worked on this project.

This document is beroby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

Next Review Date; 2008

Document No Change D'Declas Class. Change

25X1

CLASSIFICA	CONFIDENTIA	100
TE INAM # MARRE	DISTRIBUTIO	